Thank you for your request for information on 18 January 2025. Apologies for the slow reply. I was on leave last week and have only just seen it now.

Our Crown agency has not received a directive from our Minister to change our name. The current name was designed following direction from an independent review of our governing legislation, and was done in consultation with a wide range of stakeholders and our responsible Minister. Anecdotally, it has been favourably commented on by many people, enabling us to better connect with people we work with to support public outdoor access.

Regards

Stephen

Good morning team,

Can you please advise when in 2025 you will change your name into English first as directed by the coalition government for all crown agencies that principally deal with English speaking New Zealanders?
